PARTICIPANT / PARENT RELEASE FORMS

The 4-H Saskatchewan Community Leadership Conference is a conference & business meeting that provides 4-H members and leaders an opportunity for social interactions and learning. The success of this event and its related programming is dependent on 4-H delegates assuming mature and responsible behaviour while in attendance. As such, 4-H delegates and visitors are expected to work together with staff and chaperones to ensure the success of the event. Participants failing to adhere to the givens, expectations of behaviour, or the standards of the 4-H program may be sent home at their own cost.

Standards of behaviour include:

1. Abide by the 4-H Code of Conduct
2. Obey all 4-H Saskatchewan Program "givens". 4-H Code of Conduct & Givens can be found here: <https://www.4-h.sk.ca/other.html>
3. Participants are to participate fully in program activities.
4. Everyone at the program is expected to be on time for all meals and activities.
5. Nametags are to be worn at all times.
6. Participants are to be respectful of program, property and the personal possessions of others - disruptive behaviour will not be tolerated.
7. Possession or use of alcoholic beverages, illegal drugs, or weapons is not permitted.
