4-H Club Requirements

This is a summary of important 4-H policy regarding 4-H clubs. Please contact the 4-H office with any questions about club requirements or Saskatchewan 4-H Council policy.

Each 4-H club in Saskatchewan is an individual entity and is responsible for governing itself within the policies and procedures established by 4-H Saskatchewan and 4-H Canada. Clubs can also set their own additional policies and rules in their club constitution. Clubs have the right to decide whether or not to offer a project. To maintain good standing, each 4-H club is expected to (1) have at least two trained volunteer leaders and four youth members (2) hold a minimum of three general meetings, elect an executive and endeavor to conduct club business using parliamentary procedure (3) participate in their District Council (4) hold a public speaking activity and an Achievement Day, and (5) properly manage and report their financial situation.
